THE OPTIMIST.

Because his little one Could lead and laugh and run, Because the distant run Smiled on the earth, he smiled.

Because he lived he smiled,
And did not look shoud
With bitterness or dread.
But nightly sought his bed
As calmly as a child.
And people called him mad
For being always glad
With such things as he beat
And shock their heads and smiles.

Exchange.

No beast or bird in earth or sky.

Whose voice doth not with gladeess
thrill;

For Time hath laid his mantle by
Of wind, and rain, and ley chill.

River and fountain, brook and rill,
Bespingled der with livery gay
Of silver droplets, wind their way!
All in their new appared vie.
For Time bath laid his mantle by.
